REFLECT THE WORD

First Reading:

When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel. (2 Sm 5:3)

Second Reading:

He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (Col 1:13-14)

Gospel:

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

(Lk 23:42-43)

Saint Cecilia | November 22

Saint Cecilia's story, like many of the earliest saints', is largely apocryphal and legendary in nature. According to tradition, Cecilia was born to a wealthy and prominent Roman family. Though she had consecrated her virginity to the Lord, she was married to a man named Valerian. It is said that she was "singing in her heart to the Lord" at her wedding. She confessed her promise of virginity to her new husband revealing that an angel protected her. Valerian would honor her vow only if he too could see the angel. Cecilia told him he would see the angel if he was baptized, which he went to do immediately. When he returned to her, he saw the angel beside her. Cecilia also converted Valerian's brother, Tiburtius. Unfortunately, it was a turbulent time in Rome for Christians. Valerian and Tiburtius were martyred for burying the bodies of Christians, which was illegal. Cecilia was also targeted for her faith. First authorities attempted to suffocate by locking her in the bath in her home and overheating the room. Some accounts say that she didn't break a sweat and even began to sing. They then sent in an executioner to behead her, but he faltered and was unable to complete his task, only succeeding in mortally wounding her. She remained alive for three days before she died. The saint's body was exhumed twice, first by Pope Paschal I in 821, then by Cardinal Sfondrato in 1599. Both times her body was found incorrupt, the first saint to exhibit this extremity. St. Cecilia is the patron saint of music and musicians

SUNDAY REFLECTION

It's not unreasonable to think that if God wanted to make a statement he could do so in a very dramatic way. After all, he spoke through a burning bush that didn't actually burn, parted the Red Sea, sent manna to the Israelites from the sky, cured lepers, healed the sick and cast out demons. All of that is pretty dramatic stuff, and they made statements! Now, Jesus hangs dying on a cross. He has been referred to as a king. Considering all of the miracles Jesus did in his short time on earth, isn't one more in order? If Jesus came down off of the cross, defied death, and parted the waters of suffering and death, onlookers, believers and unbelievers alike, would take notice. It would prove who God is and show us what God wants us to do. Or would it? Great spiritual masters remind us not to focus on miracles or consolations received from God. They can distract us. Doing anything other than what Jesus did would distract humanity as well, misplacing our focus. It's not about a miracle, at least not the dramatic kind people are eager to see. It's about something more profound. It all goes back to where it began for the earthly Jesus. God becomes one with humanity in Jesus Christ. All that goes into being human is holy and blessed, and that becomes a place where God is born, again and again. God, through Jesus, tells us to hold firm to all of the experiences of being human, the joys and the wonders, the disappointments and the failures. God's lesson is found in Jesus' vulnerability. It is only when we are vulnerable that we learn how to love. When Jesus breathed his last, God's unconditional and tender love was realized. Jesus always had a soft spot for the weak, lost, vulnerable, and broken. God wants us to come to Him freely, not because we have witnessed some fantastic display of prowess. God desires that we find Him through who we are, as our hearts and souls direct. This will mean that our love is authentic as it will be born of the heartache, pain, and turmoil that are a part of life. The fragments of our lives need to be made whole. Our fragmented king, Jesus Christ, is the only one who can help put the pieces together.

REFLEXION BIBLICA

¡Viva Cristo Rey! ¡Viva el Rey del Universo! Mostraste tu reinado cuando caminaste sobre las aguas, y cuando multiplicaste los panes, cuando curabas a los leprosos y dabas vista a los ciegos. Tanto, tanto que hiciste por nosotros hasta llegar a la cruz. Es ahí, en la cruz, donde mostraste tu amor como Rey del Universo, al darnos la salvación. Fue ahí, en la cruz, donde un malhechor se robó el cielo, al reconocer en Jesús su Reino. "Jesús, acuérdate de mí cuando entres en tu Reino. Jesús le respondió: En verdad te digo que hoy mismo estarás conmigo en el paraíso" (Lucas 23,42-43). "Cristo es el centro del pueblo de Dios. Y precisamente hoy está aquí, en el centro. Ahora está aquí en la Palabra y estará aquí en el altar, vivo presente, en medio de nosotros, su pueblo... A él podemos referir las alegrías y las esperanzas, las tristezas y las angustias que entretengan nuestra vida" (Papa Francisco). Cuando estamos lejos de tener a Cristo como centro de nuestra vida, estamos perdidos, no existe luz en el sendero. Sin embargo, si él es el centro de la vida, aun los momentos más oscuros se iluminan con la esperanza, como le sucedió al buen ladrón en el Evangelio de hoy. ¿En qué momento de tu vida has invitado a Cristo como centro de tu vida? ¿Qué enseñanza dejó marcada tu existencia?
