EASTER: CALENDAR DAYS

Q: Why does the date of Easter change every year, while most other celebrations are celebrated on the same day?

A: when the Easter events occurred. We know that Jesus was crucified the day before Passover. The Jews calculated the date for Passover based on both the solar and lunar calendars.

It corresponds to the first full moon after the spring equinox. The early Christians maintained this connection in their celebrations of Easter on the first Sunday after the paschal full moon.

The Church has created a table of calculated dates, projecting the date of Easter decades in advance. The date of Easter also determines the date of Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent, as well as the feast days following in the Easter season, including Pentecost. So these feasts move, too!

SUNDAY REFLECTION

ON FASTING St. John Chrysostom
The value of fasting consists not only in avoiding certain foods, but in giving up of sinful practices. The person who limits his fast only to abstaining from meat is the one who especially lowers the value of it. Do you fast? Prove it by doing good works. If you see someone in need, take pity on them. If you see a friend being honored, don't get jealous of him. For a true fast, you cannot fast only with your mouth. You must fast with your eye, your ear, your feet, your hands, and all parts of your body. You fast with your hands by keeping them pure from doing greedy things. You fast with your feet by not going to see forbidden shows or plays. You fast with your eyes by not letting them look upon impure pictures. Because if this is forbidden or unlawful, it mars your fast and threatens the safety of your soul. But if you look at things which are lawful and save you increase your fast, for what you see with your eye influences your conduct. It would be very stupid to eliminate or give up meat and other foods because of the fast but feed with your eyes upon other things which are forbidden. You don't eat meat, you say. But you allow yourself to listen to lewd things. You must fast with your ears, too. Another way of fasting with your ears is not to listen to those who speak evil or untrue things about others. "Thou shalt not receive an idle report. "This is especially true of rumors, gossip, untruths which are spoken to harm another. Besides fasting with your mouth by not eating certain foods, your mouth should also fast from foul language or telling lies about others. Like as the Virgin asks us to pray with the heart, we must fast with the heart. For what good is it if you don't eat meat or poultry, and yet you bite and devour your fellow man?

REFLEXION BIBLICA

Ayuno, San Juan Crisóstomo: El valor del ayuno consiste no solo en evitar ciertas comidas, pero en renunciar a todas las actitudes, pensamientos y deseos pecaminosos. Quien limita el ayuno simplemente a la comida, esta minimizando el gran valor que el ayuno posee. ¡Si tu ayunas, que lo prueben tus obras! Si ves a un hermano en necesidad, ten compasión de el. Si ves a un hermano siendo reconocido, no tengas envidia. Para que el ayuno sea verdadero no puede ser solo de la boca, sino que se debe ayunar de los ojos, los oídos, los pies, las manos, y de todo el cuerpo, de todo lo interior y exterior. Seria inútil privar mi cuerpo de comida, pero alimentar mi corazón con basura, con impureza, con egoísmo, con competencias, con comodidades. Ayunas de comida, pero te permites escuchar cosas vanas y mundanas. También debes ayunar con tus oídos. Debes ayunar de escuchar cosas que se hablan de tus hermanos, mentiras que se dicen de otros, especialmente chismes, rumores o palabras frías y dañinas contra otros. Ayunamos buscando conversión. Por lo tanto, ayunemos de todas esas actitudes contrarias a la virtud. Quizás tu ayuno va a consistir de ser mas servicial, (ayuna de tu pereza, comodidad), pues así como la Virgen nos pide que recemos con el corazón, debemos de ayunar con el corazón. Además de ayunar con tu boca, debes de ayunar de no decir nada que haga mal a otro. Pues ¿de que te sirve no comer carne, si devoras a tu hermano?
